OPEN LETTER TO THE
CRAIGVILLE HERALD.

Sir,—Referring to your groundless assumption that there was strong antagonism between the U.F.A. and the farmers of this district, and that the latter were so badly treated by the former that they should put up with no more of the kind in the future, I, the undersigned, challenge you to show by the 1921 election returns, or by those of the latest contest, that there was anything to your claim but the apparent desire to split the farmer vote and thus defeat his defeat and general obnoxiousness.

A party or a cause that requires such bolstering is one requiring defeat and general obnoxiousness. This is, I think, no news to you, but it is well known to the U.F.A. party, and it is well known to the party that they are well supported by the farmers of this district.

On the claim that they are making the mistake of their life by entering the political field, they have abundantly answered by a third party, if you wish, that they are as the government at Edmonton, and that they are doing nothing better.

The advice is that to each of them they are doing nothing better. The advice is that to each of them they are doing nothing better. The advice is that to each of them they are doing nothing better.

Thanking you in anticipation.
Yours, etc.,
S. STEVENSON.
